

Times
Archive

The face etched with a life of care

It is April 1934 and a Romany matriarch is smoking a pipe, her constant companion, at a Gypsy encampment on heath land between Dorchester and Bournemouth — the Egdon Heath which Thomas Hardy refers to in The Return of the Native

Archive

For a selection of historic pictures go to our website at [timesonline.co.uk/

archive](http://timesonline.co.uk/archive)

Court Circular

spoke at the Google Zeitgeist conference, Grove Hotel, Chandler's Cross, and some unlabelled in The Majority's of the Council of Management at the Kennel Club, 1-5 Clarges Street, London W1.

Personals

timesonline.co.uk/announcements